For the first time this winter enough snow fell Sunday night to cover the ground, and then it was only sparsely covered.

Reward offered for any information of the party or parties that took a buggy crate from the Ironton depot last Friday night.

The Washington County Gazette, which has been published at Irondale for the past year or more, will be removed to Bismarck in the immediate future.

The town of Des Arc is not dead yet. Stevenson & Fitz sold last year $34,780.68 worth of goods. They carry from an eight to ten thousand dollar stock.

Several of the former employees of the screen factory are thinking of going to Consul, Alabama, where Mr. Ed. Cain is at present employed with a big lumber firm.

An adjourned term of the Iron county circuit court will be held February 20th, when a decision is expected in a number of cases that were taken under advisement.

Lieut. and Mrs. Jurich sailed Thursday from San Francisco, with the fourth cavalry, for the Philippine Islands, where they will probably remain several years.

If the weather is all that is delaying the building of our new depot we can't see why work cannot commence at once. This weather is fine for building purposes, and has been, so far, all winter.

The annual election of directors and officers of the Iron County Bank was held Monday and the old board and officers were re-elected. This institution begins the New Year with the largest business in its history and the outlook is most encouraging for 1906.

It is announced that the wedding of Mr. Oliver Stevenson and Miss Macy Hickman will take place at the residence of the bride's parents in Des Arc on Sunday, January 14th, Rev. John Crowley officiating. The bridegroom is one of the ten Stevenson brothers and a successful young business man.

A. Wagley was down from Bismarck last Friday. He informed us that he had just purchased a large saw mill from Louis Miller, just south of Arcadia. He says he has lots of timber in sight and expects to start running Wednesday, getting out all kinds of dimension lumber.—Farmington News.

DIED—At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Shea, Graniteville, Mo., Wednesday, January 3, 1906, at 6:10 o'clock P. M., Mrs. Margaret O'Brien, relict of the late Daniel O'Brien, in the ninety-fifth year of her age. Mrs. O'Brien was probably the oldest person in the county. A number of relatives are left to mourn her. The funeral occurred from the Catholic church Saturday morning and the remains were interred at Middlebrook.

From the St. Louis papers we see that Miss Hattie May Hotson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hotson of Ironton, was united in marriage at St. Charles, Mo., January 1, 1906, to Henry F. Sadler of St. Louis. The young couple are at home 3756 West Pine. The REGISTER joins friends of the bride here in extending congratulations.

A monster convention will be held in St. Louis March 1st, 2d and 3d, to promote the development of the unoccupied and uncultivated lands in Missouri, and particularly the lands of the Ozark region, in dairying, fruit raising and general farming. It is expected there will be a large attendance from all over the country. A preliminary meeting was held last Saturday. Louis Miller of Arcadia was in attendance.

I see, through an advertisement in the Once-a-Year, a Milwaukee Press Club publication, that my old friend, Mr. E. F. Blomeyer, is now President and General Manager of the Pere Marquette Steamship Company. He was a good many years ago, General Ticket Agent for the St. Louis, Cape Girardeau & Fort Smith Railway, with headquarters at the Cape. He has many friends in this section, but none of them are more pleased with his advancement than the writer. The P. M. S. Co. operates six steel car ferries across Lake Michigan, with first-class passenger accommodations, to various points in Wisconsin and Michigan.

At the meeting of the city council Monday night a motion was passed doing away with lighting of the street lamps. This action was taken because of insufficiency of money in the city treasury to meet the cost, and the members of the council did not want the new council, to be elected in April, to be confronted with a deficit on assuming their offices. Arrangements have been made, however, to have the lights kept in shape the next two months, the members of the council obligating themselves individually to see that the bill is paid, provided the city does not devise some way to secure the funds. The cost of the street lights is about $400 a year.

On last Monday Owl Creek ceased to be and Leadwood took its place. This is a much better name for this new and wonderful mining country. Three years ago Owl Creek wasn't on the map; now it's all over several large sections of it between Flat River, Desloge, Bonneterre and Irondale. It has all kinds of business enterprises, numerous shafts, the finest lead mill in the world and a number of new furnaces are going in, at which several hundred men are employed. The efficient postmaster is our good friend, Thos. R. Tolleson, who has just been re-appointed. On January 1st the name of the post-office at Bonne Terre was changed to Bonneterre, West Plains to Westplains, and so on, almost all two-word names of post-offices being changed to one-word names.—Farmington News.

Fred. Wyand of St. Louis last week purchased from L. C. Chambers the Haller store house and contents on North Main street, Ironton. The purchaser is already in charge, and the trade embraces most of the household goods as well as the store stock. Mr. Wyand runs the bridge Hotel, 3d and Lucas streets, St. Louis. He has announced that he will open the store with a new lot of goods in a few days. The building is one of the best and most commodious for mercantile purposes in the Valley, and has been in the possession of the Hallers for thirty-five years. Gus. Esenwein, who has been so long in the store, will have a position, for a while at least, with the new firm. The price paid for the property is not mentioned, but it is understood that Mr. Chambers has received some St. Louis property in part payment.

One day last week Sheriff Marshall received a telegram from the sheriff at Vancouver, Washington, asking if there was any reward for John Henry Orrick, who made his escape from the St. Louis jail about fifteen years ago. Orrick was tried in the circuit court here in 1891 for the murder of Hiram Antis in Wayne county. He was found guilty and sentenced to be hung. The supreme court affirmed the decision and Orrick was taken to St. Louis for safe keeping, from where he succeeded in making his escape and ever since has eluded the vigilance of the officers. Sheriff Marshall at once replied to the telegram stating that Orrick was wanted here, and has since received another telegram from Washington which leads the officers here to think they have not got the right man. The telegram stated that the man under surveillance there was about forty-five years of age and light complexion. Orrick must be at least sixty and is dark. Gov. Folk Monday issued a proclamation offering $200 for Orrick's arrest.

While driving home from Iron Mountain last Friday afternoon our Valley gardner, Mr. John Newman, was held up on the road between Iron Mountain and Middlebrook and robbed of about $17 at about half past two o'clock. As he reached the hill just north of Middlebrook he saw a man walking toward him. The road was so bad that he was kept busy with his team and paid no attention to the stranger. As they met the stranger pulled a gun, ordered Mr. Newman to stop and give him what money he had. Mr. Newman first handed him a little change he had in one pocket, but this did not satisfy the road agent, who called for more and told him to be quick. Seeing there was no alternative Mr. Newman then gave up his purse containing between $10 and $18. The robber then started east through the woods. Mr. Newman describes him as a man probably thirty-five years of age, heavy set, very dark and talks and looks like a foreigner. Mr. Newman hurried to Middlebrook and telegraphed to Bismarck, but no news has been heard of the thief. The robbery occurred across the line in St. Francois county. Mr. Newman has been traveling this road for over thirty-five years and this is the first time he has had an experience of this kind.

The Reformer scribe made a business trip to Ironton last Saturday and met many old friends and made some new ones. Editor Gibbs was one of the latter. We found him to be a very pleasant gentleman, one who deserves the united support of his party and one who commands the respect of all the Democrats. He is brim full of energy, gets out a good, clean newspaper, and seems to be very popular with all classes. We found Bro. Ake hard at work, as he always is, getting out the best newspaper in all southern Missouri. The writer feels under many obligations to the Budweiser band for the splendid music that caused the evening to pass all too quickly. People who admire his literary style will be surprised to know that Ake, the musician, is even superior to Ake, the writer. The county officials were at their posts, busy as bees, but ever ready to extend to the visitors that courtesy and hospitality for which they have long been noted. We have long maintained that Iron county had the best qualified and finest looking lot of officials in the State and one only has to know them to understand why the county rolls up the same Democratic majority year after year. Would that we had the time and space for a more extended account of a trip to which we always look forward with the greatest pleasure.—Centreville Reformer.

Experience is Sometimes a Dear Teacher.

So many parents of young children do not realize the danger from croup until they have had the experience of one severe case in their own home. To be awakened in the middle of the night by the peculiar rough cough and find their little one suffering from a fully developed attack of the croup and nothing in the house with which to relieve it is a lesson never to be forgotten. A good remedy at hand is of incalculable value in a time like this, and nothing better can be obtained than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has been thoroughly tested in hundreds of cases and not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear it will prevent the attack. The fact that this remedy contains no narcotics makes it perfectly safe to give to the children. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.
